

Glossary of Real Estate Terms

Abstract of Title: A summary of the public records relating to the ownership of a particular piece of land. It represents a short legal history of an individual piece of property and traces the ownership of that property from the time of the first recorded transfer to present.

Acceptance: Consent to an offer to enter into contract.

Adjustable Rate Mortgage: A mortgage that allows the interest rate to be changed periodically; referred to as ARM.

Agency: A legal relationship in which an owner-principal engages a broker-agent in the sale of property or a buyer-principal engages a broker-agent in the purchase of property.

American Society of Home Inspectors (ASHI): A professional trade association providing training and education in home inspections. Members meet qualification requirements to join.

Amortization: The gradual repayment of a mortgage by periodic installments.

Annual Percentage Rate (APR): The total finance charge (interest, loan fees, and points) expressed as a percentage of the mortgage amount.

Appraisal: An evaluation of a piece of property to determine its value.

Appreciation: Increase in value due to any cause.

Asbestos: A mineral fiber used in some building materials, such as flooring, siding, insulation, and roofing. It is presently banned for most uses in real property.

Assessed Value: The valuation placed on property by a public tax assessor as the basis of property taxes.

Assumption of Mortgage: An agreement whereby the buyer assumes responsibility for a mortgage owed by the seller; the seller remains liable to the lender unless lender agrees to release the seller from the liability.

Comparative Market Analysis (CMA): An evaluation of similar, recently sold homes (called comparables) that are near a home intended to be bought or sold. Comparative market analyses establish the current market value of the home and are prepared by real estate agents. A comparative market analysis is not the same as an appraisal, which is performed by a licensed appraiser.

Comparables: Properties similar in size and character to the one being bought or sold.

Condominium: Ownership of a unit only, rather than of the entire building with the land.

Consideration: Anything of value to induce another to enter into a contract (i.e. money, services, a promise, etc.).

Contingency: A condition that must be satisfied before a contract is binding.

Contract: An agreement to do or not to do a certain thing.

Conventional Mortgage: A fixed rate, fixed-term mortgage not insured by the federal government.

Deed: A legal document conveying title to a property.

Deed (quit claim): A deed that transfers only that title or right to a property that the holder of that title has at the time of the transfer. It does not warrant or guarantee a clear title.

Department of Housing And Urban Development: A U.S. government agency established to implement certain federal housing and community development programs.

Disclosure Laws: State and federal regulations which require sellers to disclose such conditions as whether a house is located in a flood plain or whether there are known defects in or affecting the property.

Earnest Money: A portion of a down payment given to the seller by a potential buyer indicating the buyer's intent to complete the purchase of the property.

Easement: A right to use the land of another.

Encroachment: A condition that limits the interest in a title to property, such as a mortgage, deed restrictions, easements, unpaid taxes, etc.

Equity Mortgage: A mortgage based on the borrower's equity in their home rather than on their credit worthiness.

Escrow: The placement of money or documents with a third party for safekeeping pending the fulfillment or performance of a specified act or condition.

Fair Market Value: a selling price for an item to which a buyer and seller can agree.

Fannie Mae: Nickname for Federal National Mortgage Corp. (FNMA), a tax paying corporation created by Congress to support the secondary mortgages insured by FHA or guaranteed by VA, as well as conventional home mortgages.

Federal Housing Administration (FHA): An agency within the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) that administers loan guarantee programs and loan insurance programs to make more housing available.

Fixed Rate Mortgage: A loan that fixes the interest rate at a prescribed rate for the duration of the loan.

Foreclosure: Procedure whereby property pledged as security for a debt is sold to pay the debt in the event of default.

Freddie Mac: Nickname for Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp. (FHLMC), a federally controlled and operated corporation to support the secondary mortgage market. It purchases and sells residential conventional home mortgages.

For Sale By Owner (FSBO pronounced "fizz-bow"): A home that is for sale by owner.

Graduated-Payment Mortgage: A mortgage that starts with low monthly payments and increases at a predetermined rate.

Growing-Equity Mortgage: A mortgage loan in which the monthly payments increase by a specific amount each year, with the "overpayments" applied to the principal.

Home Warranty: Is a contract between a homeowner and a home warranty company that provides for discounted repair and replacement service on a home's major components, such as the furnace, air conditioning, plumbing and electrical system. A home warranty may also cover major appliances such as washers and dryers, refrigerators and swimming pools.

Installment Debts: Long-term debts that usually extend for more than one month.

Investor: The holder of a mortgage or the permanent lender for whom the mortgage maker services the loan. Any person or institution that invests in mortgages.

Lease Purchase Agreement: Buyer makes a deposit for the future purchase of a property with the right to lease the property in the interim.

Lien: A legal claim against a property that must be paid when the property is sold.

Loan-to-Value Ratio: The relationship between the amount of a home mortgage and the total value of the property. Lenders may limit their maximum mortgage to 80-95 percent of value.

Lock-in Ratio: A commitment made by lenders on a mortgage loan to "lock-in" a civilian rate pending mortgage approval. Lock-in periods vary.

Market Value: The highest price a buyer will pay for property and the lowest price the seller will accept.

Multiple Listing Service (MLS): Is a suite of services that enables real estate brokers to establish contractual offers of compensation (among brokers), facilitates cooperation with other broker participants, accumulates and disseminates information to enable appraisals, and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information to better serve broker's clients, customers and the public.

Mortgage: One type of document used to make property the security for the payment of a loan.

Mortgage Broker: An individual or company that obtains mortgages for others by finding lending institutions, insurance companies, or private sources to lend the money; may also handle collections and disbursements.

Mortgagee: The lender of money or the receiver of the mortgage.

Mortgagor: The borrower of money or the giver of the mortgage document.

Negative Amortization: An increase in the outstanding balance of a mortgage resulting from the failure of periodic debt service payment to cover required interest charges on the loan.

Note: A written promise to pay a certain amount of money.

Origination Fee: A fee or charge for work involved in the evaluation, preparation, and submission of a proposed mortgage loan.

Prepayment Penalty: A fee paid to the mortgagee for paying the mortgage before it becomes due. Also known as prepayment fee or reinvestment fee.

Private Mortgage Insurance (PMI): Insurance issued to a lender by a private company to protect the lender against loss on a defaulted mortgage loan. Its use is usually limited to loans with high loan-to-value ratios. The borrower pays the premiums.

Promissory Note: A written contract containing a promise to pay a definite amount of money at a definite future time.

Radon: A colorless, odorless gas formed by the breakdown of uranium in sub-soils. It can enter a house through cracks in the foundation or in water and is considered to be a health hazard.

REALTOR and REALTOR- Associate: Registered collective membership marks that identify real estate professionals who are members of the National Association of REALTORS and who subscribe to its strict Code of Ethics.

Rent with Option: A contract which gives one the right to lease property at a certain sum with the option to purchase at a future date.

Savings and Loan Association (S&Ls): Depository institutions that specialize in originating, servicing, and holding mortgage loans, primarily on owner-occupied residential property.

Savings Bank: A financial institution organized to hold individual depositors' funds in interest-bearing accounts and to make long-term investments, such as home mortgage loans.

Second Mortgage/ Second Deed of Trust/ Junior Mortgage or Lien: An additional loan imposed on a property with a first mortgage; generally a higher interest rate and shorter term than a "first" mortgage.

Severalty Ownership: Ownership by one person only; sole ownership.

Shared-Equity Mortgage: A home loan in which an investor is granted a share of the equity, thereby allowing the investor to participate in the proceeds from resale.
