A quiet residential neighborhood of Hillsboro. This 3-bedroom, 1 bath vinyl sided 1½ story home is ready to be brought back to life. An extensive renovation project was just completed to replace a basement wall. The home is structurally sound and has been gutted and ready for reconstruction. Updated electric panel and a gas furnace are present. A covered front porch, tiered rear deck canopied by mature shade trees, a corner lot with alley and street frontage on 3 sides, and carport are amenities to build upon. This is a perfect project for the DIY, make into a rental or flip house!
